	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Women for Women's finance staff reviews the financial aspects of the federal Form 990 to make sure results are properly stated and reconcile to the audited financial statements. The Global Leadership Team reviews both the financial and non-financial content for accuracy and completeness. Once the federal Form 990 is reviewed and approved by management it is reviewed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of a segment of the Governing Body, and has been charged with the duty of reviewing the federal Form 990 due to their experience and knowledge with financial matters. The federal Form 990 is then emailed to the entire Board of Directors before filing with the Internal Revenue Service.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis, Women for Women conducts a survey of Board of Directors' members and key employees to determine whether any conflicts exist. If a conflict arises, the Governance Committee of the Board of the Directors would evaluate any conflicts and determine if any action is necessary. If the Governance Committee determined that a conflict existed, it would take steps to limit the activities and authority of the Director, Officer, or Key Employee based on the nature of the conflict. We have no dealings with companies owned by Board of Directors' members, so this has not really been an issue for us.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Women for Women's Human Resources Director works with management and the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors to review the position requirements. Women for Women then determines comparable market rates based on discussions with other non-profits, review of published compensation studies and review of salary histories for candidates who meet the stated requirements. The CEO or other hiring manager makes a recommendation which is reviewed and discussed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The request is approved or modified as needed.
